Certification Benefits

Six Seconds’ core certifications equip you with an in-depth understanding of EQ and the Six Seconds Model – for most participants, this is, by far, the most valuable take-away from the program. Your own EQ practice is imperative to be truly effective as an EQ change agent, leader, teacher, coach, etc.

You will be able to effectively utilize a large range of EQ development tools yourself, and in your work. Then, to be most effective with the Six Seconds’ methodology, continue on the certification path toward mastery.

Core includes five full days of hands-on, dynamic instruction, activities, practical projects, networking, laughter, and learning. These courses are highly active, brain-based, and experiential. The content is based on 40 years of practical teaching experience and the Self-Science curriculum featured as a model in Daniel Goleman’s 1995 bestseller, Emotional Intelligence. Certified Practitioners are delivering programs in over 150 countries.

After completing the certifications, you will have access to a range of development tools in our Certified Library for yourself and clients, and can purchase and use the best-in-class EQ assessment, SEI -- as well as a wide range of supporting tools and curricula.

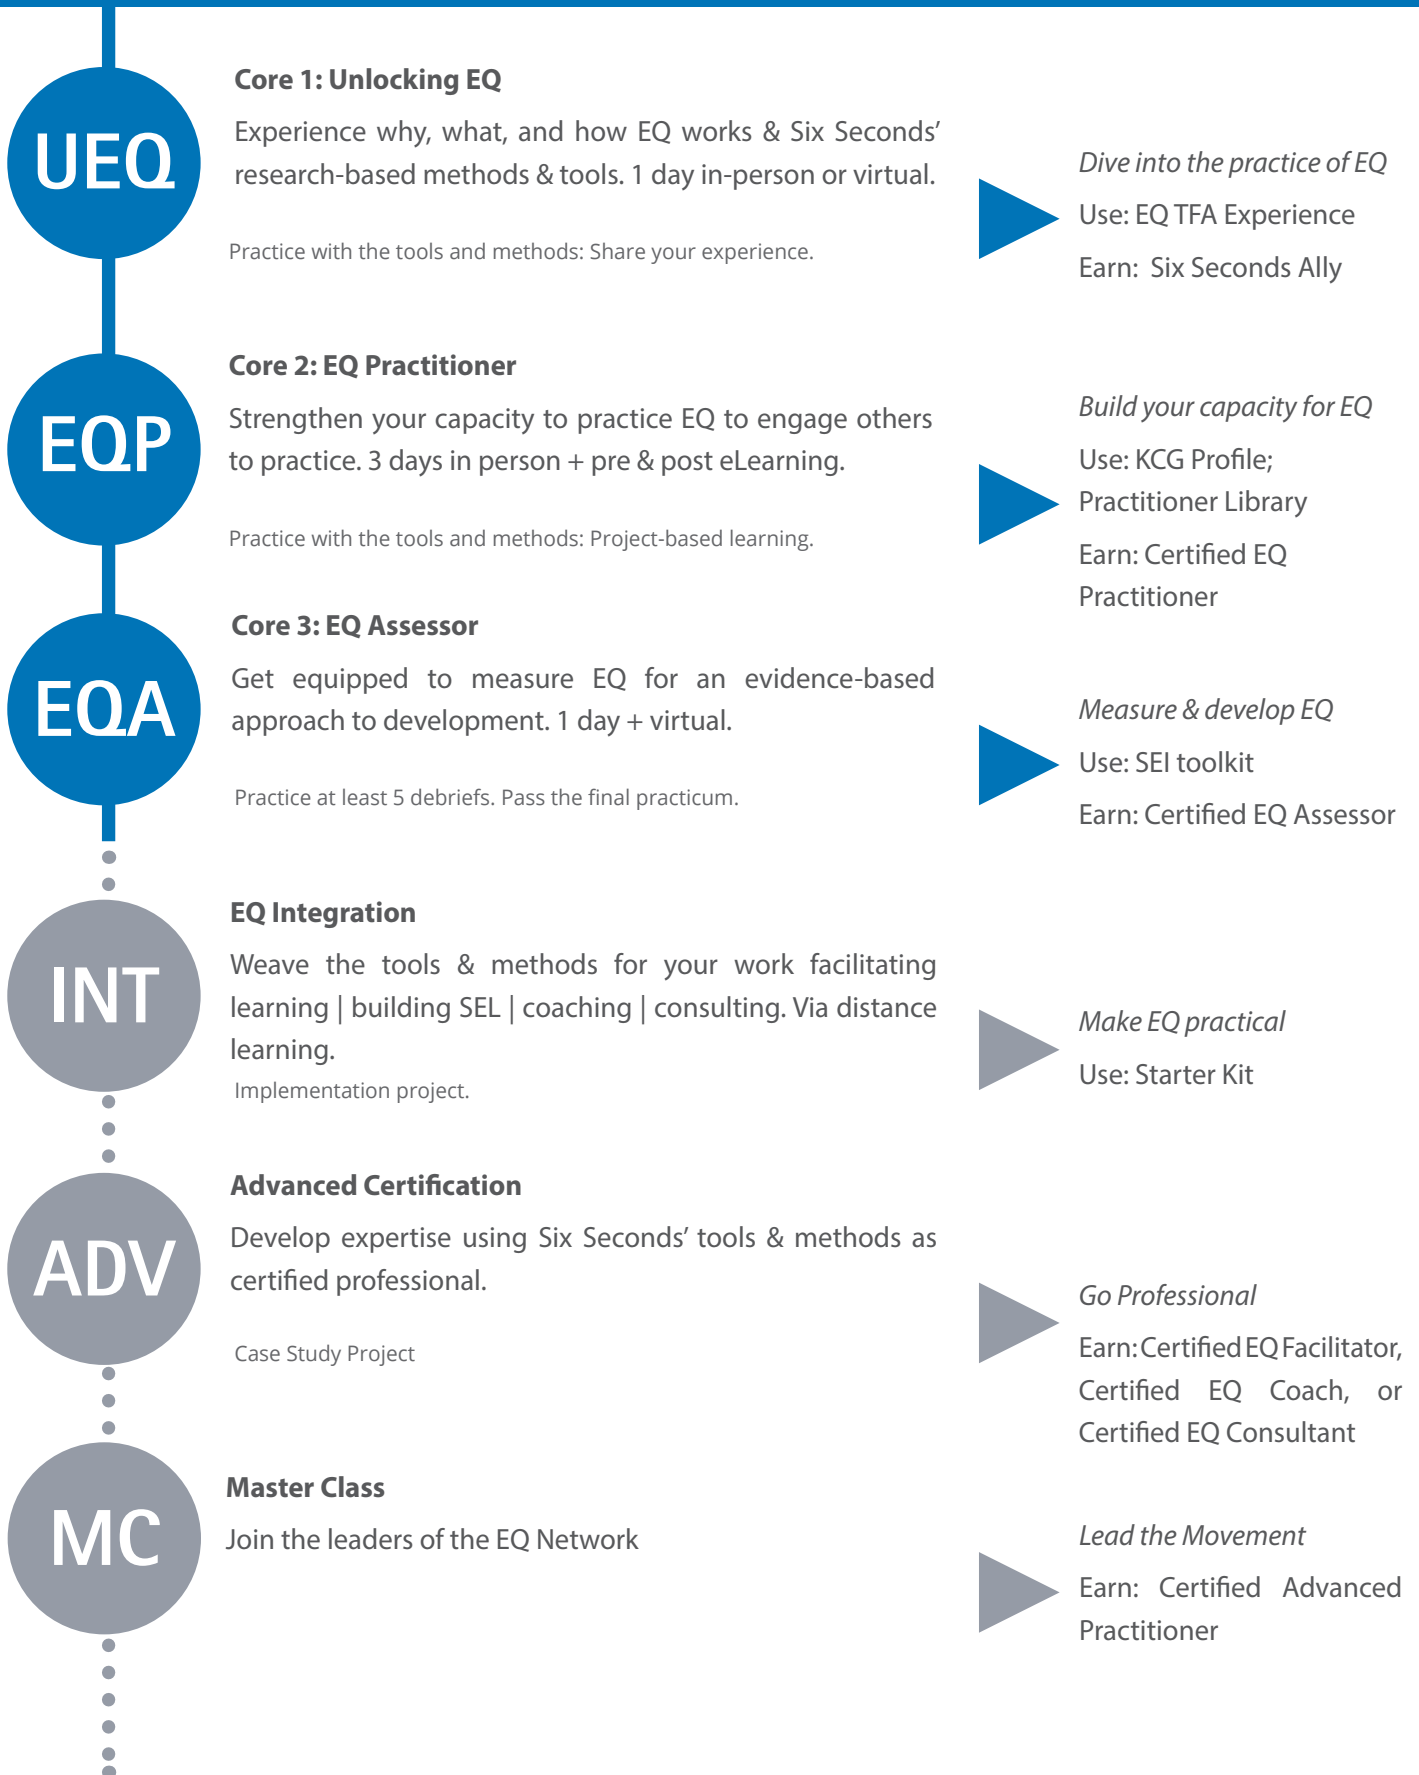

Coaches: EQPC is accredited by the International Coach Federation for 47.5 CCEUs (33 Core, 14.5 Resource). EQAC for 33 CCEUs (26.25 Core, 6.75 Resource).

Certification Pathway

“Excellent ‘hands-on’, experimental course to improve your EQ and that of people you impact. Must-do workshop for all leaders as the journey begins from the top.”

Sarojini Rao, Principal, Indus Int’l School, Bangalore, India

Core Part 1: Unlocking EQ

This is the only course of its kind – ideal for people seeking to incorporate emotional intelligence (EQ) into their work and life.

Immerse yourself in Six Seconds’ unique approach to create value with emotional intelligence and see how this method works for you.

In this course you will...

- Develop a clear “case” for emotional intelligence.
- Explore the Six Seconds Model, a process framework for making emotional intelligence practical.
- Review some of the latest research on the brain, emotions, and performance.
- Clarify your vision and define key goals for your own EQ development.
- Learn to use the TFA Cards to introduce EQ.

Emotional intelligence is the ability to use emotions effectively, and it’s the foundation for life success... and one of the World Economic Forum’s top skills for the 21st Century. This course builds your capacity to develop this core capacity.

The Six Seconds Model of EQ-into-Action begins with three important pursuits: to become more aware (noticing what you do), more intentional (doing what you mean), and more purposeful (doing it for a reason).

This model is both simple and substantive. It’s easy to learn, practical, and action-oriented providing a process framework for putting the science of emotional intelligence into practice.

The course follows this model, however, the focus is on development so those who use other models (e.g., BarOn, Mayer-Salovey, Goleman) are able to apply Six Seconds’ methodology irrespective of theoretical model.

“EQ is crucial for business development and yet in nearly 30 years of working in corporates, I have never had EQ explained, demonstrated and presented in this most engaging fashion. A superb facilitator who shared abundantly.

This is truly the BEST program I’ve attended in 20 years.”

Joni Peddie, MD of Bizcomm Group & Lecturer, Gibbs Business School, Johannesburg, South Africa

Core Part 2: EQ Practitioner

This certification follows Six Seconds’ Know Yourself, Choose Yourself, Give Yourself model for learning to develop and apply emotional intelligence. Participants experience an EQ learning environment and a range of effective tools and processes that strengthen emotional intelligence.

Six Seconds integrates the latest neuroscience into practical, engaging content. A research-based organization, Six Seconds’ materials blend data and emotional experience to build both understanding and wisdom.

In this course you will...

- Understand the Six Seconds Model and the eight core competencies to put emotional intelligence into action.
- Take home dozens of proven EQ exercises and learning tools that you can use yourself and with your teams/families/clients.
- Experience Six Seconds’ learning design that will enhance the effectiveness of all your training, coaching & teaching.
- Strengthen your own emotional intelligence.
- Be able to utilize the “KCG Profile,” offering practical feedback for introducing the value of EQ.

At the core, Six Seconds’ work is about the triangle shown to the right. Our feelings, thoughts, and actions are constantly interacting, affecting one another. As we become more aware of these dynamics, we can expand our choices.

"I considered many EQ certification programs – this is the only one that promised a process I could use and adapt rather than just a script to follow. It delivered far more than promised. The course challenges you to grow and creates both commitment and resources."
